STIPULATION

By and through their respective undersigned counsel, plaintiffs Oracle USA, Inc., Oracle International Corporation and Siebel Systems, Inc. (“Oracle”) and defendants SAP AG, SAP America, Inc. and TomorrowNow, Inc. (“Defendants”) (together, the “Parties”) hereby stipulate and agree to be bound as follows:

1. Following the first trial, the Court granted judgment as a matter of law. See Dkt. 1081 at 18-20; Dkt. 1088 (clarifying Dkt. 1081); Dkt. 1162 (denying motion to clarify and denying leave to move for reconsideration). The Court also granted Defendants’ new trial motion. See id. The Court ordered a new trial on actual damages, limited to lost profits and infringer’s profits, conditioned on Oracle rejecting a remittitur to $272 million. Oracle rejected the remittitur (see ECF No. 1107) and the Court scheduled a new trial. See ECF Nos. 1108, 1190 and 1192. To save the time and expense of this new trial, and to expedite the resolution of the appeal, the Parties stipulate to entry of judgment in the amount of $306 million, in the proposed form attached to this Stipulation as Exhibit A, which will be the Court’s final judgment in this matter (the “Stipulated Judgment”). Oracle contends that but for the limitations established by the Court’s rulings to date, Oracle’s recovery in a new trial would be greater than $306 million.

2. The Stipulated Judgment shall constitute Judgment on all claims for relief under Rule 54(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Parties reserve all appeal rights from the Stipulated Judgment, and each and every part thereof, including the right to appeal the Stipulated Judgment and to seek review of all otherwise reviewable orders, decisions and rulings in this proceeding, including without limitation: (a) orders entered prior to the November 2010 trial in this matter; (b) rulings of the Court during the course of the November 2010 trial; (c) the orders of the Court on Defendants’ motions for judgment as a matter of law and for a new trial following the November 2010 trial; (d) the orders of the Court on Oracle’s conditional motion for a new trial following the November 2010 trial; (e) the limitations imposed by the Court with respect to the new trial currently scheduled to commence on August 27, 2012; and (f) the Stipulated Judgment. The Parties further reserve the right to seek all appropriate appellate relief, including

1 without limitation reinstatement of the original $1.3 billion judgment. The Parties agree that they 2 each may appeal the Stipulated Judgment, and that nothing in this stipulation or the Stipulated
3 Judgment waives any right of either party to appeal the Stipulated Judgment, seek review of any 4 order, decision, or ruling entered in this proceeding, or seek otherwise appropriate appellate relief.

5           3. If the Stipulated Judgment is vacated or reversed on appeal, and a new final 6 judgment is entered and all appeal rights are exhausted (the New Judgment), then if the New 7 Judgment awards Oracle more than the monetary amount set forth in the Stipulated Judgment, 8 Oracle may enforce the New Judgment in lieu of the Stipulated Judgment. If, however, the 9 Stipulated Judgment is vacated or reversed on appeal, and, after all appeal rights are exhausted,
10 the New Judgment awards Oracle less than the monetary amount set forth in the Stipulated
11 Judgment, Defendants stipulate to make an additional payment in the amount of $306 million 12 minus the amount of the New Judgment. Defendants' promise to pay this difference between the 13 Stipulated Judgment and a lesser New Judgment is joint and several among all three Defendants.

14           4. Oracle may not enforce either the Stipulated Judgment, the New Judgment, or 15 Defendants' promise to pay the difference between the Stipulated Judgment and a lesser New 16 Judgment, until 30 (thirty) days after the conclusion of all proceedings in this case, including any 17 appeal(s) (including discretionary review by certiorari in the United States Supreme Court, if any) 18 and new trial(s). No Defendant shall be required to post a supersedeas bond or provide other 19 form of security to prevent enforcement during that time. The Parties intend Defendants' promise 20 to pay the difference between the Stipulated Judgment and a lesser New Judgment to be 21 enforceable under California contract law, and that promise is made in consideration of Oracle's 22 agreement to these stipulated terms (including Oracle's compromise of its claim for lost and 23 infringer's profits and its agreement that Defendants need not provide security to prevent 24 enforcement of a judgment pending post-trial motions and appeals). For purposes of enforcing 25 the contractual obligations under paragraphs three and four, Oracle and Defendants submit to 26 jurisdiction and venue in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California .
