Corporation, and Oracle EMEA Limited

Case No. 07-CV-1658 PJH (EDL)

STIPULATION [AND PROPOSED
ORDER] REGARDING EXPERT
DISCOVERY

STIPULATION REGARDING EXPERT DISCOVERY

1
2 Plaintiffs Oracle USA, Inc., Oracle International Corporation, and Oracle EMEA Limited
3 and Defendants SAP AG, SAP America, Inc., and TomorrowNow, Inc. (together with Plaintiffs,
4 “the Parties”) jointly enter into this Stipulation regarding expert discovery.

5 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by the Parties, through their respective counsel of record,
6 that the following agreement shall govern expert discovery:

7 For the purposes of this agreement, “experts” means only those individuals identified and 8 disclosed pursuant to the protective order as well as their staff and others working under the 9 experts direction and control.

10 a. No communications between counsel and experts after October 1, 2006 will be the 11 subject of discovery or inquiry in deposition or at trial, except as described in paragraphs d and e 12 below.

13 b. No communications between experts and clients or among experts after October 1, 14 2006 will be the subject of discovery or inquiry in deposition or at trial, except as described in 15 paragraphs d and e below.

16 c. No notes, drafts or other types of preliminary work by or for experts, including 17 draft expert reports, prepared after October 1, 2006 will be the subject of discovery or inquiry in 18 deposition or at trial, except as described in paragraphs d and e below.

19 d. Paragraphs a, b and c will not apply to any communications or documents on which 20 experts intend to rely or that form the basis for any part of that expert’s opinion; such 21 communications or documents shall be subject to discovery or inquiry in deposition or at trial.

22 e. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all documents provided to experts (including, 23 without limitation, publications and documents produced in discovery), other than those 24 generated for the purpose of the litigation and/or for the purpose of communicating with the 25 expert, that were considered by the expert in formulating his or her opinion (whether or not they 26 support the opinion) are discoverable and may be the subject of questioning at deposition and trial.

27 f. While this stipulation does not affect the potential discoverability of any expert
28 communications or related documents generated in conjunction with any other litigation, expert

1 communications and related documents generated in conjunction with this litigation, which the
2 parties have agreed are not discoverable pursuant to paragraphs a, b, or c above, shall not later be
3 discoverable in any future litigation that may arise between the parties.
