SAP Statement on Court Order in SAP's Motion to Dismiss

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa. — December 15, 2008 — Today the Court issued an order regarding SAP's motion to dismiss some claims in Oracle's third amended complaint.

The court granted in part and denied in part SAP's motion. Judge Hamilton granted SAP's motion regarding the copyright claims by JD Edwards (JDEE) and Oracle Systems Corporation (OSC), dismissing those claims without providing Oracle leave to amend.

The Court denied SAP's motion on preemption "except to the extent that the state law claims are based on the alleged copyright infringement," and denied the motion as to the breach of contract and unjust enrichment claims.

We're gratified that the Court agreed with SAP's position regarding the copyright claims that were dismissed. While we are disappointed the Court did not accept all of SAP's positions at this time, we look forward to working with the Court to achieve the proper resolution of this case.

SAP's response to Oracle's third amended complaint is currently due on December 30, 2008.
